

Shellfish Prohibition has been lifted in Areas listed below

Area 17

Effective immediately the harvest prohibition for manila clams, littleneck clams, oysters and mussels is lifted in Subareas 17-1 to 17-3, that portion of Subarea 17-6 east of a line drawn from a point starting at the boundary line for Subarea 17-8 on Penelakut (Kuper) Island at 48°56.06' N latitude and 123°37.88' W longitude, heading in a straight line southwesterly to a point 48°55.03' N latitude, 123°38.48' W longitude on the Subarea boundary line between Subareas 17-6 and 17-9, and Subareas 17-8 to 17-14.

Effective immediately the harvest prohibition for manila clams, littleneck clams, oysters, mussels, butter clams and cockles is lifted in Subarea 17-16.

The most recent marine biotoxin results were acceptable.

For more info www.dfo-mpo.gc.ca

