JOB POSTING

Band Family Designate

Full-time, Permanent

Wage: $25.00 - $28.50/hr

JOB SUMMARY

Reporting to the Mental Health Manager, the Band Family Designate is the lead responsible for assisting families in accessing the necessary supports needed to remain together as a safe and healthy family unit. The Band Family Designate serves as an advocate for the health and well-being of Snuneymuxw children and families, ensuring their best interests are respected and upheld. This position is situated at Snuneymuxw huilt lelum (Snuneymuxw Health Centre) and will include attending meetings, conducting home visits and working collaboratively with Kwumut Lelum, MCFD, and other delegated agencies.

DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES

As the Band Family Designate, you will be responsible for the following duties:

- Facilitate the development and implementation of culturally appropriate services.
- Reduce the utilization of family court in favour of traditional decision-making processes.
- Maintain professional competency through professional development and clinical supervision
- Support families in accessing and/or navigating child and family services to address vulnerabilities and build capacity.
- Eliminate barriers that prevent families from providing safe, caring and enriching environments for children placed in their homes.
- Connect parents and youth living independently with the services and support they need to build the necessary skills to become healthier families and individuals.
- Actively participate in Snuneymuxw huilt lelum team meetings.
- Coordinate or assist in referrals to other agencies or services for further assessment or follow-up.
- Strive to meet and exceed the national standards of accreditation.
- Perform other related duties and support co-workers and community as assigned by the Mental Health Manager.
